Report Underpass Plans Drawn For Crossroads

Supervisor Jack Cummings told the ORINDA SUN today that he will soon confer with State Division of Highways in San Francisco regarding the proposal to construct an underpass or overpass at Orinda Crossroads.

Cummings said that he has been informed that preliminary work has been completed. He will check the plans with Highway officials.

Orinda organizations have asked that future plans be developed now to relieve the traffic problem at the Crossroads.

Problems of Displaced Persons Told Rotarians

Victor Chick spoke with knowledge gained from his own experiences on the topic, "White Russians and Displaced Persons in and From China," before Orinda Rotary members on Wednesday.

A law student at University of California, Chick is here under a student visa. Born in Harbin, China, of White Russian parents who had been forced to leave Russia in the Bolshevik regime, his return to Harbin would mean being forced to flee from the Reds in China.

Pointing out he was "a man without a country," Chick told Rotarians there are 150,000 persons in the same category. With termination of his three and one-half year student visa in another year, his only alternative is to return to his homeland, China, if his visa is not renewed.

Able to speak English, Chinese and Russian, Chick told of an amusing incident in which he joined a group of six Chinese men students at International House on the U.C. campus. Hoping to "polish" up on his Chinese, Chick addressed the group, strangers to him, in Chinese. He was met with blank stares. Inquiry in English revealed that all were natives of this country, and Chick, the White Russian from Harbin, was the only one who could speak the Chinese language.

School Bond Drive Set for Sept. 13

Voters will be asked to approve a $92,000 bond issue to finance additional classroom construction for the growing area of Orinda at a special bond election scheduled for September 13. Advertising of the special election will be found in this issue of the SUN.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., and will be consolidated into one precinct, with balloting at Orinda Union Grammar School building. Election officers will be Mrs. Margaret Symes, Mrs. Carolyn Coggins and Mrs. Helen Vurek.

Although opening of the new Glorietta School on September 12 will bring the district's available classroom total to 19, there is still not enough room for the rapidly growing enrollment, according to Joseph Sheaff, schools superintendent.

Special Exhibits Planned at Fair

Special attractions, greatly increased over past years, will make the California State Fair, September 1 through 11, a kaleidoscope of color and motion.

These special exhibits and programs form but a part of the big show with its major attractions which include night theatrical performances with stars of screen and radio, a horse show second to none, a gigantic carnival, thousands of head of livestock, and commercial and county displays.

The Hobby Show, topped by two model railroads and a model of the giant telescope atop Mt. Hamilton, will compete for attention with the Centennial Cookery, located in the other end of the Hobby Show and Food Exhibits Building.

JUDY IS SIX YEARS OLD

There were gum drops, candy sticks and nine little friends at Judy Rechtiene's sixth birthday party on August 5. Judy doesn't think that she'll ever forget the wonderful fun and beautiful presents she received that afternoon. Her guests were Claire Cianciarulo, Karen Hauser, Karen Fernster, Leslie Seller, Julie and Jennifer Wellband, Holly Hall, Nancy Baumbaugh and Denys Babbel.

Services Held for William Neal

Funeral services for Mr. William Neal, brother of Mrs. Ethel Meakin of Orinda and Walter Neal of Ben Lomond, were held at Truman's Chapel, Oakland, on Tuesday. He was the husband of the late Mary R. Neal.

FROM L.A.

The Lee Mikesells of 33 Barbara Road have been host and hostess to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jesse who are visiting the Bay Area from Los Angeles and will head south again next week.

Post Office Wins High Rating

Orinda Post Office was given a final rating of 97 percent following the recent inspection by Olaf Baldwin, Post Office inspector out of the main Oakland branch.

The high rating was given following a thorough check of the local office, covering audit of the books and investigation of all procedures including the routes covered and the carriers.

The inspection began July 26 and lasted through half the next day. The last check-up was held in January.

Sewage Disposal Lines May Be In Operation in 30 Days

Sewage disposal lines may be in operation in some areas of Orinda within the next 30 day, according to latest estimates.

One pumping station located off Miner Road near Santa Maria Catholic Church is nearly completed. There are two four-inch pumps and one five-inch pump for standby at this plant.

SECOND PUMPING STATION

The second main pumping station is located at a higher elevation near the southeast end of Lake Cascade, to assist in pumping sewage from Orinda area over the Charles Hill ridge where it will flow by gravity through the main trunk line of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District to the treatment plant near Pacheco.

Two three-inch pumps and one four-inch pump for standby operation will be in this second station which is nearing completion. Charles T. Brown, under contract with the Sanitary District, is building both installations. The buildings have been designed with exteriors that will conform with other construction in Orinda area.

L.I.D. NO. 12

Meanwhile, contractors in both Local Improvement District No. 10, northwest of Orinda Village and Local Improvement District No. 12, an area east of the Village, are anticipating completion of their jobs within a month.

Ray Butterfield, superintendent for Associated Electrical and Mechanical Company which is installing sewer lines in LID No. 10, reports Canyon, El Toyonal and Monte Vista have been completed and Crescent, Claremont and Berkeley will be finished very shortly. With line laid on the San Pablo Dam Road and Miner Road, final filling, paving, and the general clean-up will finish the job in his district, according to the superintendent.

ANNOUNCEMENT PUBLISHED

Butterfield said that no Orinda residents of the district had approached the company since the announcement published last week offering a co-operative paving plan. He pointed out that it was too late to carry the plan out now with paving of the sewer line trenches so near completion. However, the offer was made to District No. 10 residents by Associated Electrical and Mechanical Company to install driveways while the paving equipment is in the vicinity. Installation will be under separate contract with the property owner.

Installation of laterals by Stolte Inc., in Local Improvement District No. 12 east of Orinda Village, was 51 percent complete as of last Saturday, according to Douglas McAlpine, office manager for the firm. He reported that work was progressing rapidly despite difficulty with slides along Camino Sobrante. Pipe has been laid in this sector and on Mira Loma and hand digging is being done on the easements where heavy equipment cannot be used. Completion of the work, which is supervised by Lloyd King, is expected in a month's time.

Both superintendents, Butterfield and King, reported that cooperation of residents in construction areas had helped the work run smoother.

Contract for work on collection laterals in LID No. 14, which extends south of the Crossroads along both sides of Moraga Highway to the vicinity of Glorietta Boulevard, has been let to Underground Construction Company. Engineers expected about three months would be required to complete the latter job, on which the preliminary work has already started.

BUT BUSY!

In addition to all her household duties, Mrs. Jack Rechtiene of 44 Barbara Road has another interest . . . she is an authorized Insurance Agent.

Orinda's Proposed Parking Ordinance Sent to D.A. For Final Preparation

Orinda's proposed parking ordinance received preliminary approval of the Board of Supervisors Monday. The Board then instructed the District Attorney to prepare final draft of the ordinance which should be ready by next Monday for further consideration by the supervisors, according to reports from the supervisors' office.

The results of months of survey and planning by members of Orinda Better Business Association are incorporated in the ordinance which provides numerous safety features for protection of motorist and pedestrian alike.

ANGLE PARKING

Included was inauguration of 30 degree angle parking through painting of parking strips, limited parking in front of the post office, no parking signs in the alley near Black's Market, a red "no parking" zone established at the curb fronting the bank and on the opposite side of the street, a stop sign in the alley adjoining Virginia Hammond's Dress Shop, pedestrian crossing strips painted at several strategic locations on the highway and various other features.

Through the close co-operation of Supervisor Jack Cummings with the Better Business Association, those suggestions which were considered most advantageous in helping to solve the parking problem at the Crossroads were incorporated in the proposed ordinance.

PROGRESS MADE

Through publicity, some strides have been made in partially alleviating the parking difficulty through the cooperation of businessmen of the area, shoppers and commuters who leave their cars in this sector when they go to work on the Greyhound buses.

According to Clarence Betz, Association secretary and active worker for passage of the ordinance, painting of the angle parking strips would make motorists park more carefully, which will expedite the movement of traffic and allow more cars to park.

Body Found In Ocean Linked With Phelan Mystery

Investigators are checking the possibility that the disappearance of Ray Phelan, Lafayette artist-teacher, may be solved by the discovery of the body of a man found in the ocean near Venice, California.

Authorities believe that the body came from the San Francisco area because of prevailing ocean currents. Deputy William B. Faulkner, in charge of the investigation for the Sheriff's Department, said that positive identification of the body is almost impossible. However, Faulkner said measurements check with the description of Phelan.

Last Week of Swim Program

Registration is still open for the third and final week swimming session at Acalanes swimming pool through Saturday of next week.

Sponsored by the Red Cross, classes range from the non-swmmer groups up through the intermediate stage to junior and senior life saving. Adults are welcome to the special class scheduled for them. This week 12 adults enrolled in this session. Children of school age from any community in this area have been urged to take advantage of this last two weeks in the annual swim session.

Night Callers Returning for 3rd Visit 'Welcomed'

Two prowlers fled into the dark last Sunday night when two residents on Las Vegas Road fired three shots "to scare them." An even warmer welcome is promised any prowlers who return to this area which has been harassed by several such incidents in the past two weeks.

R. B. Allen of 144 Las Vegas Road was alerted about 8:30 p.m. Sunday when his wife saw two men walking along their driveway and staying close to a rock wall in an attempt to remain unseen.

FRIGHTENED AWAY

Mrs. Allen, watching from a kitchen window, saw the men disappear around the street end of the stone wall. They entered the grounds of a neighbor but the barking of a dog frightened them and they ran down the street.

The Allens decided to stand guard from their darkened house because this was their second "pair of prowlers." Several nights previous to the Sunday night episode, prowlers had left two sets of footprints about the place.

GETS GUN

In about one-half hour, the Allens were startled to see the two men at the rear of their driveway and rapidly approaching the garage which adjoins the house. Allen, armed with a shotgun, approached them and asked them what they wanted.

Before he could get close enough to see them clearly, the pair turned and fled up the driveway as Allen called to them to stop. He then fired one shot into the ground to add "emphasis" to his remarks.

HIDE ACROSS STREET

The two prowlers ran across the street and disappeared on the Ambrose P. MacDonald property, 145 Las Vegas Road. Mrs. Allen immediately notifed the MacDonalds by telephone of their visitors and MacDonald, who also has been plagued by prowlers recently, armed himself with a gun and investigated.

One of the men attempting to hide in the rear of the MacDonald property, called out to MacDonald, but they made their escape with two more shots following them into the darkness.

QUICK RESPONSE

Meanwhile, the Sherrif's department had been called and Deputy Jones, on patrol in the area, responded immediately, Mrs. Allen reported.

Inspector Norman Wilson said that nothing has developed as yet but extra vigilance is being maintained by his department. Wilson said that many cases of prowling have been reported although some of them were "false alarms."

Schedule for Grammar Schools Told

A schedule of classes for Orinda Union Grammar School and the new Glorietta School was released this week by Superintendent of Orinda Schools Joseph Sheaff.

Kindergarten through 8th grade classes will be held at both schools. Although it will be necessary to hold double sessions of both kindergarten and the 1st grade at Orinda School, there will be no double sessions at Glorietta with present enrollment indications.

CHILDREN DIVIDED

Children living in Oak Springs, Northwood Drive, Northwood Court, Southwood Drive, Southwood Court and Davis Street sectors will attend Orinda School. All other children on the Moraga side of the highway will attend the new Glorietta School.

According to Sheaff, cards have been prepared for mailing to parents designating the session each child will attend school. The first day, all children in the early classes are to catch the bus at 8 a.m., with the second session children ready about 11:30, according to present plans. The regular schedules will be planned and carried out after the first day.

Sheaff pointed out that a card bearing the name and address, pinned to the clothes of the kindergarten or 1st grade student prevents a great deal of confusion on the momentous first day of school.

CLASS HOURS

At Glorietta, kindergarten class hours will be from 9 a.m. till 12; 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades, 9 until 2 p.m.; 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, 9 until 3 p.m., with buses delivering the children to their home areas about 20 minutes after class hours, depending upon location.

At Orinda School there will be two sessions of kindergarten, the morning class from 9 until 12 and the afternoon class from 12:30 until 3 p.m. The 1st grade morning class will convene at 8:30 a.m. and last until 12, the afternoon 1st graders will attend class from 12:30 to 4 p.m. The 2nd and 3rd grade students will attend classes from 9 until 2 p.m., the 4th through 8th grades, from 9 until 3 p.m.

DIVIDED SESSIONS

Transportation is the deciding factor in designating which students will attend morning and which the afternoon sessions, with classroom capacity also taken into consideration.

Sheaff reports that the enrollment is steadily increasing. There were 640 students at Orinda School last term, with fifty leaving as graduates.

About 686 students are expected in the Orinda Grammar Schools. Sheaff stressed that further returns on his postcard survey will permit more definite plans for future growth of the schools. So far 611 cards have been returned.

TO OPEN BIDS

Bids for reclaiming land adjacent to Glorietta School for playground area will be opened at a meeting to be held next Monday evening.

Preparations are also being made for Fall term opening at the Orinda School, with lavatories being painted and floors cleaned and varnished.

Building Permits Issued for Aug. 12

Included in the building permits issued for Contra Costa County for the week ending August 12 were three new residences and garages and a single residence for Orinda, a residence and garage for Moraga, a garage, a residence and carport and a single residence for Lafayette area.

Orinda permits for house with garage were to: owner Moreskine on property on El Gavilan Road near Mira Flores; V. V. P. Wilke for property at Claremont Avenue and Crescent Road, Orinda Oaks; owner and builder Victor Richit for property on Lombardy Lane near Ripper Lane, Sleepy Hollow. The single residence o.k. was issued to W. N. Clyatt who will build on Miner Road near Diablo View.

Owner J. J. Halloran will have a house and garag constructed on Overhill Road near Hillcrest Drive, Moraga Meadows.

F. Peglow plans to have a garage constructed on his land, Mosswood Drive near Village Court following granting of permission last week. F. S. Betancourt has planned to build a residence and carport on his property on Dewing near Brook, Bickerstaff Tract, and a single residence will be constructed on St. Mary's Road near Solano Drive, Lafayette Homelands, with the permit issued to owner L. P. Heiser.

Living Here Meant Work . . . Way Back When . . .

In this final chapter of Edith Miner's story of early days at the family ranch at Brookbank, now known as the Sleepy Hollow section of Orinda, she tells of daily living. Do you remember — before the turn of this twentieth century —? Life was not easy!

"During the years we lived on the ranch there was no transportation save what you furnished for yourself. We had good horses to drive and made the trip to Oakland in an hour-and-a-half.

GOOD OLD DAYS?

"What food we did not raise we bought in Oakland. Mail came from Oakland. Later, quite thrilling, by Rural Free Delivery from Berkeley. We only had to ride about a mile to the mail box on San Pablo Road. No phone, no electric light, no refrigerator, except as you cooled your icebox with ice from town. A wood stove to cook on. A fireplace in the front room, and, oh yes, on your woodstove you heated your sad irons and ironed your starched and embroidered undies and your long skirts and changed your iron often to keep it at correct heat. You washed with a washboard and boiled your clothes in a big tin boiler.

"It seems there was always butter to churn or to work over.

"Oh lady, lady, you miss a lot of things! Enjoy your well-kept home with all its modern inventions and roll on in your nice car, over well-kept roads, to even better days."

Signed EDITH E. MINER

EARLY PICTURES

At the conclusion of Edith Miner's chronicle of the home ranch and the family's daily life contained in the memory book owned by Mrs. James Carl Roos of Orinda, and loaned to the SUN for publication, there are several panoramic snapshots of the countryside. One of rolling hills, tree-studded slopes bare of any sign of habitation, is captioned, "This is Brookbank As We Knew It." This picture was "taken from what we called High Point, the highest point on the ranch, eleven hundred feet elevation. A lovely trail ride we often took friends on for a wonderful panoramic view of the country."

"On a clear day you could see, looking west across Brookbank, to the Berkeley hills and Mt. Tamalpais, Mt. St. Helena and the surrounding hills to the north, then Mt. Diablo, and on a very clear day, the long line of the snow-capped Sierra Nevada Mts. in the far distance.

OLD MARKERS

"At this corner of the ranch is the surveyor's concrete marker, marking the corner of the Sobranto with the Acalanes grant and the Borinas."

There are more pages of photographs and the lines, "I rode on the mountain top. I ride, I have found my life and am satisfied," by Edward Markham, who surely coined the phrases with a family like the Miners in mind. The sleek flanks of the horses show the loving care they received and many of the pictures show cats and kittens or one of the ranch dogs in proof of the family's love of pets.

'I REMEMBER'

The second section of the chronicle, written by the youngest of the three girls, the present Anita Miner Macey of Concord, is entitled, "I Remember."

NOSTALGIA . . .

(Do you remember the "mustn't touch" dolls shown you when you were young, with the admonition to be very careful, these were Grandma's dolls when she was a little girl? I remember too! Smooth china faces cool to the touch and awkward straight bodies sheathed in fine leather, China hands, exquisitely fashioned, sewn over and over at the wrist to the leather arms. And a faint musty smell mingled with lavendar pervading the hand made clothes of ruffles and lace.)

ANITA'S STORY

But here is Anita's story: "I was not actually born on the ranch but it was there that I first became conscious of the world around me. It was a wonderful world filled with such wonderful things!

"Those early years were, for my parents, I expect, filled with work and the hardships that go with pioneer life. To the child that I was it meant nothing, only the added interest of watching the building of the new barn, the rearranging of the house to make it more livable for Mother — after all, a house was just a place to eat and sleep in.

ORINDA HUNTING

"Oldest sister, Gertrude, nearly fifteen, was a good shot and liked to hunt. Quail and cotton-tail abounded. I used to go with her whenever I could and serve as a retriever for her.

"As I grew, my field expanded. I became intimately acquainted with every detail of the ranch life, also every foot of the land.

IN MEMORY

"I knew where the birds nested and what they lived on — bugs or seeds; I knew their songs. What a lovely thing their grand chorus was! Sometimes our guests from the city complained that the birds woke them too early in the morning.

"In memory I can still hear that great morning chorus and the soft last notes of the thrush at eventide!"

Next week, the SUN will continue with Anita's early impressions of Brookbank life.

Originator of Nursery School Is Honored

Mrs. Robert Bennett of Charles Hill Road was hostess at luncheon recently in honor of Mrs. Gerald Woods. Included among the guests, all long-time friends of Mrs. Woods, were the Mesdames Melvin Jacobus, Frank Dunn, John Blemer and Marshall Shapiro.

Many Orindans will remember Mrs. Woods in connection with the Orinda Nursery School, which she originated as a private school and which is now run, as a co-operative. The Woods built the home now owned by the Challiss Gores on La Vuelta.

AT SANTA CRUZ

Plans Thought Out During the War Are About to Come True for Orindan

By DORIS SAGE

When Bruce Coggins hangs up his Attorney-at-Law shingle in Walnut Creek, as he plans to do, he will have reached a goal he has been working for since he was released from army service in 1946 and one he has dreamed about since long before then.

A University of California graduate with the class of '43, Coggins, an Economics major, combined wrestling and gym with his studies, winning letters in both sports, one year for wrestling and two years for his skill as a gymnast.

TO FORT BENNING

Following graduation, he entered the army and was sent to Fort Benning to officers candidate school. Italy, and three-and-a-half years active service with the 10th Mountain Division in that sector was the next stop, six weeks of that time spent in hospitals recovering from a machine gun wound in his side, suffered during a night attack. He was awarded the Purple Heart, to remind him of this interlude.

With VE day, Coggins returned to the States and while waiting to be shipped to Japan, married his sweetheart Carolyn, a Turlock girl whom he had met while both were university students. In the meantime, he decided that the study of law appealed to him and the war's end found him, now Captain Coggins, making immediate plans to carry out his plans.

THREE YEAR GRIND

Enrollment at Hastings Law School followed, and during the three year course, he commuted from their home at 39 Ardilla Road to San Francisco classes and worked four nights each week to bolster the family finances. Bruce was employed at Moraga Hills Nursery and started at the Associated Station at the Crossroads as an employee of Fred and Leo Troy, shortly before last Christmas.

With recent completion of a refresher course, bar examinations will follow this Fall and his passing will find him starting in practice with Bill Phelps, a fraternity brother at California who also just graduated from Hastings.

MEET YOUNG BRUCE

The Coggins' have one child, three-year-old Bruce. Bruce Sr.'s father, Lt. Commander C. A. Coggins, has retired from active duty. Commander and Mrs. Coggins are somewhere on the Alcan Highway, enjoying a vacation trip complete with house trailer.

Meanwhile, Bruce continues to "fill 'em up" at the gas pumps and "cram" at night preparing for that all important bar examination.

The best of luck — Attorney Coggins!

Intelligent Approach to The Orinda School Problem

(AN EDITORIAL)

On September 13 Orinda voters will go to the Orinda Grammar School to approve or disapprove the $92,000 school bond issue. The Board of Trustees of the Orinda School District has called this election to secure necessary funds to add classrooms to the Orinda School.

It is not the purpose of this editorial to discuss the pros and cons of the election. However, let us make this point clear: the ORINDA SUN endorses and will campaign for approval of the bond issue. (Analysis of the reasons for this stand will be discussed in a future editorial.)

The purpose of this editorial is to urge every voter in Orinda to do two things: STUDY available facts related to Orinda School problems and then VOTE on September 13.

It's so easy for us to rely on unsound statements and snap judgments. Such as "Our taxes are increasing; we must defeat all bond elections." Or "We recently voted enough money to build the new Glorietta School, so we must have sufficient school facilities." The danger of these assertions is that even though they are not based on facts, we are apt to spread them in our conversations.

The alternative is to devote an hour or two during the coming weeks to consider the facts. Then, and only then, can you arrive at an intelligent decision.

The Orinda Sun in future issues will publish news stories and discussions of our school problems. School officials and interested citizens will analyze the need for the bond issue.

There can be no excuse that the facts were not presented.

We firmly believe that every Orinda voter who is concerned directly or indirectly with the future of the young people of our community will support the passage of the bond issue. But a fuller understanding of the problems faced by the Orinda School district will serve to confirm this judgment.

Realtors Hear Conservation Talk

Jack A. Stevens, manager of the Walnut Creek office of the Contra Costa Soil Conservation District, spoke before members of the Contra Costa Realtors Mart at their Monday morning breakfast-meeting.

Stevens showed colored slides taken in the vicinity showing various types of soil, and explained the program of the District to the Mart Members. One of the main purposes is to help conserve and develop soil and water resources through good agricultural practices.

Technical advice and helpful information are available to residents of the area. A detailed soil conservation survey of some 226,000 acres has been made by the District, and the assistance afforded is invaluable in conserving and reclaiming the soil. Encouraging desirable wildlife is another objective of the Soil Conservation District.

STATEHOOD CENTENNIAL—One hundred years ago at this time delegates were gathering in Colton Hall, Monterey, to formulate a constitution for the incipient State of California. The Centennial of this event is being celebrated at Monterey Aug. 29 through Sept. 5. Here shown is an original painting contributed to the Celebration by A. G. Warshawsky, nationally known artist. Letters to the Editor

DEAR EDITOR:

There may be several reasons why only one citizen attended the recent Orinda School District budget hearing, reported in last week's SUN, reasons which in no way reflect on the loyalty and interest in school matters of Orinda citizens.

First, if Orinda citizens had not perfect faith in the integrity and competence of their Board they would have come out in droves to oppose it. Second, the absence of citizens that night might be considered an indictment of the school board and school officials for failing to give more information about the budget previous to the meeting.

The public has to know the facts before they can criticize the aims of the board. One of the great problems of all boards is to pay for the special services now demanded as school health and recreation, libraries, and transportation for children, and in some cases, cafeterias.

If through the year the public is informed of the needs, aims and goals, and the amount of the district's income to meet them, the Orinda people certainly will have the intelligence and the will to help next time at a called budget meeting of the Orinda School Board.

Mothers Club Report Lists Accomplishments of Past Year

An enviable record of successful projects is contained in the 1948-49 report of Mother's Club of Orinda Union School.

The Saturday afternoon moving picture program was noteworthy for its entertainment value to the children as well as its financial success. A total of $611.14 was realized through these Saturday programs.

Chosen as their annual money raising project, the Hobby Show given at the Nathan Gray residence was also an unqualified success. Besides netting $577.79 for the treasury, it revealed the wide variety of talented artists and interesting collections and hobbys to be found in Orinda.

BRIDGE CLUBS

Two semi-monthly bridge clubs were formed which met with widespread approval as a means of bringing members together and as an excellent method for new Orinda residents to become acquainted. The sum of $205.50 netted from this project brought the total from various activities in the Club's money raising efforts to $1,511.77.

This entire amount is being spent for the welfare of the two schools in Orinda School District. A set of World Books for the school library and two cultural programs were paid for from this sum.

OTHER PROJECTS

Other projects financed through efforts of the Mothers' Club were hiring of a playground director on Saturday mornings for a year, purchase of new curtains for the teachers' room, purchase of a set of music appreciation records for the students, and presentation of $1,000 for playground equipment.

The school library benefited by a book sale held in November, with $104 used to buy new books.

PAY EXPENSES

Dues from members of the Mothers' Club not only paid the running expenses of the organization, but also provided candy for the children at their annual Christmas party, financed a picnic and swimming party to the graduating eighth grade and provided diploma ribbons and graduation flowers for them. Twenty-five dollars was spent to buy new dishes for the school kitchen.

Other projects were sponsoring the new Orinda County Library and contributing $50 toward the foreign relief program. Under the guidance of the philanthropy committee of Mothers' Club, excellent speakers gave short weekly talks to the children on customs, conditions and history of several foreign counties. The children contributed $360.75 for relief.

The comprehensive report is signed by Mrs. Virla Krotz acting president in the absence of Mrs. Carol Harrison who is severely ill. The report expresses the Club's enthusiasm over the year's accomplishments and the cooperation and participation of the large membership.

Forms Available For G.I. Dividends

It was announced today by J. W. Hammond, Veterans service officer, that applications for National Service Life Insurance dividends for all World War II veterans will be available on August 29 at the Veterans Service Offices at 108 Hall of Records, Martinez, and 254 - 24th Street, Richmond.

Forms will also be available at Post Offices, Veterans Administration offices, and through the Service Officer of most of the veterans organizations.

Veterans will be asked to furnish their names, addresses, service serial number, date of birth, and the number of their insurance policy, if known. They will complete the form and mail it to the Veterans Administration and payments will be made on these applications after January 1, 1950, Hammond said.

Veterans are cautioned not to fill in the blank for the insurance policy number if they are not positive of this number. Inserting the wrong number or inserting "not known" will only result in delay of payment.

Happiness Theme For Sunday Talk

"Are Chistians Happier?" is the theme of the sermon to be given Sunday morning at 9:30 at Orinda Community Church by the minister Rev. Fred Morrow. The soloist for the service, Miss Frances Groves, soprano, will sing an arrangement of the Twenty-third Psalm based on Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony.

Mrs. C. P. Baker is the organist. While this service is going on, younger members of the congregation will be attending departmental worship and instruction groups in other parts of the buildings. A good response to the summer schedule of 9:30 worship and Sunday School sessions is reported by church officers.

Burkes Return From Motor Trip in North

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke have just returned from a month's motor trip to Vancouver. Along the way, they visited in Portland where Mrs. Burke has four sisters and a brother. The brother and his wife accompanied them on fishing trips in Oregon streams. Mr. Burke's biggest catch was a five pound salmon. The four enjoyed the drive on to Vancouver and to adjoining points of interest. On the leisurely return trip, Mr. Burke's brother and wife left them at Portland. Because of cool, drizzly weather, the Burkes were glad to hurry back to Oinda.

Vets Advised on How to Use Insurance Dividends

Estimating that at least half of the World War II veterans in Contra Costa County who will receive National Service Life Insurance dividends early next year do not currently have NSLI policies in force, J. W. Hammond, Veterans Service Officer, has this suggestion for them:

"This dividend is a reminder of the value of NSLI protection. Why not use it to take out a new policy, if yours has expired?"

Dividends will be paid on policies which have lapsed (provided they were in force for at least three months) as well as those which veterans have kept in force, Hammond pointed out. He quoted Veterans Administration estimates that some 16,000,000 veterans will receive dividends, while only a little over 7,000,000 policies are now active.

JANSEN HOUSEGUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. John Jansen last week had as their houseguests Mrs. Jansen's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Engberg. The visitors were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Knoble and Mr. and Mrs. Larson. The Engbergs returned last week to their home in Minneapolis.

I'm Frank...

AND IF YOU'LL BE FRANK with me when you come in and look around the Orinda Hardware, we can come a lot closer to making it the kind of store we both want.

For instance, take Mrs. G. Chester Brown. Mrs. Brown came in the other day and said, "Frank, why don't you carry a supply of flags?"

"Red flags, white flags, signal flags," I asked.

"No," said Mrs. Brown, "American Flags."

Now that set me to thinking . . AMERICAN FLAGS . . symbol of our American Heritage. The world today is divided by a struggle of ideas. On one hand, devotion to individual liberty, on the other adherence to the all-powerful state. The American Heritage Foundation says, "Freedom is Everybody's Job." Hadn't thought anything like that for a long time.

THANKS, MRS. BROWN and, incidentally, we've ordered the flags.

UNCLE OLAF OLSEN, my fishing uncle, is sure excited about the big salmon run out by the Lightship. Uncle Olaf uses bait for the big ones (we sell lures). He does buy his hooks in our sporting goods department, though.

I'm going to try to interest him in an Airex Spinning Reel before he goes trout fishing at the end of the month. You've probably read about spinning equipment. Come on in and we'll show it to you.

WHENEVER I TELL Uncle Olaf about the wonderful casts that can be made with this type reel, he just looks and says, "A lot of thinkin' and a little castin'll catch more fish than a lot of castin' and a little thinkin'."

It is wonderful equipment, though, and I'll bet he'll be using it before the summer is over.

THAT YOUNG CHRISTIE SAVALE is sharp as a tack and it was proven the other day when her daddy Bill brought her in and weighed her on the nail scales. And a cuter bundle never graced a scale, nail or otherwise.

We used to sell nails so much a handful, and then Bob came to work here. Y'ever see the size of that boy's hands? The scale paid for itself in nine days.

BY THE WAY, have you asked Bob how he enjoyed himself in Los Angeles last week? Told me he had to padlock the doors of the green chariot . . . to keep 'em out, not to keep 'em in (he said).

I'd give one dozen brand new widgets to know who the lady was who came in and asked for the chubby clerk. Lady, I'm Frank.

WANT TO HAVE REAL SUMMER FUN for the kids for only fifty-nine cents? Have you seen our new popsicle, or is it popcycle (shucks, I mean ice on a stick deal)? You take chocolate milk, grape juice, fruit juice of any kind . . . put it in this here mold . . . place in freezing compartment of your refrigerator, and presto! . . . you're the most popular individual in the neighborhood. The kids love it and they'll love you for thinking of it, too. That's right, fifty-nine cents.

I'LL TELL YOU MORE about this one later but, if you're wise, you'll take a good sound tip and come in and see the new Boysen Paint Product called "Colorizer." It's the most remarkable discovery since the beginning of the paint industry. It's so phenomenal that you'll have difficulty believing it even as you're watching it in use.

MY GARDEN TIP for this week is: Don't put "Weedone" on the petunias. The wind blew the day I sprayed the lawn, and it was just like Ole Ohleyer's trombone — an ill wind that nobody blows good, or, rather, blows nobody good, including the petunias. Better I should have planted wild mustard.

Say — don't forget the square dance tonight at the Orinda Park Pool. Last one out of doors, you know. Better be there.

THAT'S ABOUT IT for now, friends, but remember, if we don't have it at the Orinda Hardware, ask us to get it for you.

Just drop in and ask for the chubby one . . .

that's what users say . . . about their Home Freezers

Whether you live on a farm or in town the efficient home freezer will make meal planning easier. Month in and month out your family food costs will be less—much less. If you grow your own fruits and vegetables or raise a few chickens it is easy to freeze and store them yourself. Or you can buy meat when it is cheaper or by the quarter and have it cut and wrapped for freezing. Savings as high as 30 to 50 per cent have been reported on quantity purchase. With a home freezer you really—"Eat better and spend less."

TIMELY TIPS by Connie Conlin

To keep bread fresh longer, place it in the refrigerator in its own wrapper.

The modern Gas refrigerator gives silent efficiency with no moving parts in its freezing system to wear, cause noise or require costly repairs.

Mrs. M. E. Lowe Honored at Party

One of the gayest summer parties in Orinda with over fifty guests in attendance, was the barbecue dinner and birthday celebration last Sunday for Mrs. Maynard E. Lowe of 25 Brookside Road.

The party started off with cocktails at 3 p.m., then the guests enjoyed a whole 75 pound calf which was barbecued in the fashion of Old Mexico by the master chef, Manuel G. Estrada. After dinner during the intermission from dancing, the crowd was entertained by Eida and Ricardo Fontes from Hawaii and Mary Dorr of Orinda with several numbers of Hawaiian dancing.

Among the guests were Doctor H. Mitts, Miss Margaret Hayden and Miss Sybol Wensky of Oakland; Miss Marge Dugdale of San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spence and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart of Berkeley; Miss Faith Wobber, Mr. Paul Engler, Miss Carmen Partida, Miss Eida Perez and Miss Elena V. Hernandez, who writes for El Democrata Spanish newspaper of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Swanson and two daughters from San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. John O'Leary of Walnut Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Don Shelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bernardi and Mr. and Mrs. John Dorr of Orinda.

Optometrist Opens Offices

Dr. William A. Perrin has announced the opening of optometry offices in the Rheem Building on Brookwood Drive. Entrance is through the Marian Pittman real estate office.

Dr. Perrin has practiced in Berkeley for some thirty years but decided to make the move to Orinda when his Orinda patients convinced him that Orinda needs an optometist. He also admitted that "Orinda living" had much to do with his wanting to move his office to this area.

Dr. Perrin, a graduate of University of California, class of '13, lives in Berkeley with a sister.

Dorrs Visit Canada by Plane

They then took the boat back to Seattle enjoying the relaxation of the trip and the mainland scenery. Mr. Dorr at the controls brought his family safely home by an air route low enough for all to enjoy the changing landscape.

Family Portrait

DR. AND MRS. JOHN L. GOMPERTZ pose with their children for this week's family Portrait. Left to right the children are Joann, Margaret, and Charles. (SUN Portrait by Victorina Willson)

By VICTORINA WILLSON

Today I want to introduce a very interesting family — meet Dr. and Mrs. John L. Gompertz, Charles, Margaret and Joann.

The Gompertz moved to Orinda in 1944 to spend the summer while the doctor was overseas. They fell in love with Orinda and the school and did not want to move back. From their letters Dr. Gompertz realized he'd better like it too — but of course when he arrived he too shared their enthusiasm.

OFFICE IN OAKLAND

Dr. Gompertz' office is located in Oakland and he specializes in internal medicine. Dr. and Mrs. Gomeptrz attended the University of California and are still ardent Bear football fans.

They are natives to the area for both were born and raised in the East Bay. While at Cal, he was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and she of Alpha Phi. I asked Dr. Gompertz to list the medical societies he belonged to but had to give up for they are so numerous that it would leave me little room for the rest of the story.

Both girls are very interested in scouting and Mrs. Gompertz is an assistant Girl Scout leader. They have donated the use of their tennis court to a weekly "tennis clinic" sponsored by the Carnation Milk Company, and feel that some excellent tennis players are being developed.

VARIETY OF PETS

The family has always had a variety of interesting pets. One of the more recent additions is "Jennie" a friendly donkey whose only bad trait is that she brays with joy when she awakens. Unfortunately for late sleeping neighbors she does wake up at around 7 a.m.

But Jennie's fault must be forgiven for she has a very utilitarian job to do — she is the official power lawn mower. She was purchased after Lena, a fairly friendly goat who only butted strangers, failed in her duty to keep the grass eaten short enough. Ruff, a MacNab Shepherd is also a favorite pet. Jody and Peggy insisted that his breed, MacNab, be mentioned for he has his pride. They had nine assorted cats and are happily down to four but with a new batch of kittens expected shortly. If anyone would like a lovely kitten, just contact Jody or Peggy.

COUNTRY CLUB MEMBERS

They are members of the Orinda Country Club and enjoy the swimming and tennis, but Mrs. Gompertz admits that she and the Doctor enjoy the social hobbies such as Canasta and Bridge rather than the active ones.

Instead of a conventional house, the Gompertz have a very interesting arrangement. They actually live in four houses, or three, if we don't count the storehouse and laundry. Chuck's house consists of a bedroom, bath and closet which sounds like a boy's idea of heaven — no worry about tracking through the house. The two girls have their own house, and Dr. and Mrs. Gompertz live in the "big house" so called because it contains the dining and living room.

This healthy family should be a wonderful advertisement for our climate for they live very comfortably without central heat, using only a few electric stoves. Or, are they perhaps a little hardier than the rest of us.

Many Orindans to Enter Cal This Fall

By KAI ERIKSON

The over populated campus of the University of California will be invaded this Fall by a multitude of Orindans, mostly from the Acalanes graduating class of '49.

The Orinda bunch (which will compose approximately .0005% of the student body of this biggest university in the world) will be the largest representation this community has had in many suns, if not THE largest!

PLAN TO ATTEND

Among them will be Joan Woolsey, Clair Stoffel, Ellen Galbraith, Nancy Macomber, Kai Erikson, and John Engelsman.

Englesman has worked this summer, keeping two jobs, one at the Orinda Theatre in the evenings, and one a day job in Lafayette.

Nancy Macomber and Kai Erikson have decided to major in journalism.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Cal-bound Bill Morrish with "Lefty" Keith Endersby, drove up the Alcan Highway, to Alaska, where the two caught jobs with the Alaskan Railroad. After heaving eight pound axes around for a month, they quit to go fishing for another month. Although fishing is only so-so up there this year, they figure to get some big ones at Katchakan and Juneau. Once summer has run its course, they plan to sell their car and travel home by boat. Sounds a little like Jack London.

CAL TROOPERS

Waiting with knowing sighs as the unsuspecting newcomers troop in, are the old veterans, Boyd Wickman, and Bruce and Warren Potter. Boyd, after one battle-scarred year, will transfer to the Forestry Division, having tentatively decided on entymology.

Warren Potter who also will start his sophomore year reports that pre-architecture can be tough. Big brother Bruce, majoring in psychology, has only one year of Cal left, after which he plans to study at the San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Johnsons Enjoy Vacation To Lassen Park

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Judy, and Carol returned Monday from a two weeks vacation spent in Lassen National Park.

The first week they camped on Horseshoe Lake where the children had their first experience fishing from a boat. They were thrilled even though no one caught a fish. The water was warm enough for swimming. The second week was spent in the camp grounds from which they hiked to the mountain top. The girls loved playing in the snow patches on the climb up. Mrs. Johnson particularly enjoyed the sight of hillsides covered with violet blue lupin. There were hikes, too, to Bumpas Hill and to the other places showing the result in stones and pools of the mountain's last volcanic action.

Ben Marty Dies Of Heart Attack

Mr. Ben Marty of Oakland, father of Miss Betty Marty of Lower Happy Valley Road, passed away on August 10 at Merritt Hospital, where he succumbed from a heart attack.

Besides his daughter, he is survived by his wife, Elsie, and son, Harold, of Oakland.

EXPLANATION — VACATION

Those times recently when Jack Pedder couldn't be reached by telephone are now explained. He tells us he, his wife and two children, were enjoying a two week vacation at Oakland Recreation Camp at Tuolomne.

All Around Orinda

WITH THE ROUNDER

JACK SNOW AND FRANK DELOS are a bit fed up with what goes with their garbage cans. A local yokel — whose identity they profess to know — has been using their cans to dispose of his garbage. And their annoyance might not have reached its present high spot if the guy used better aim and hit the garbage can opening at least once in awhile.

It's also doubtful if Joe Navone is smiling over the affair. How can a guy do a profitable business hauling away three persons' refuse — and collecting from only two. A thing like that could lead to bankruptcy. Suppose everyone in Orinda pooled his garbage with a neighbor.

FORMER ORINDANS, the Claude Hazletts, now reside in Los Gatos, unfortunately for both the Hazletts and Orinda. And to liven up the hamlet they now call home, Claude is toying with the idea of organizing a Barbershop Quartet and an amateur theater group. Daughter Lois Levy finally gave up and has returned to Orinda — is searching now for a local apartment and employment so she can remain here.

THE ROUNDER BORROWED "The Naked and the Dead" from Orinda's County Library a few days ago. And almost broke his leg trying to reach the library over the rocky terrain that passes for a path. Read part of the book — reached the immediate conclusion that it belongs on a shelf marked "FOR ADULTS ONLY."

FRIENDLY TIP to a local liquor dispenser: The lad who buys that pint of Imperial from you a couple times a week may look to be twenty one — but he's only eighteen.

ORINDANS ARE TALKING ABOUT:

Jack Cummings threatening to dig into the fact that the Division of Highways has a set of sketches relating to an underpass at the crossroads.

The parking ordinance for the Orinda business district that the Board of Supervisors ordered the D.A. to draw up. Orindans are all in favor of the idea — but slightly puzzled as to just who is going to enforce the ordinances.

THE ROUNDER will undoubtedly find himself busy with a whole new set of gripes and gripers. The ORINDA SUN gets sent free to everyone in Orinda during the next couple of weeks. Building up new subscribers.

ORINDA'S FIREMEN SAVED Stolte Inc. from possible damage suits over the last week-end. Stolte's workmen, laying the sewer through the Village, went off last Friday afternoon leaving a miniature Grand Canyon across half the street. Driving over the hole even in the daytime was a hazardous job. Driving over it after dark at the speed some of our mad, mad Orindans travel would have had them landing all over the club fairways — ruining both the greens and their noggins. The firemen came to the rescue though—blocked off the area, but not before at least one car hit the rut, lit in the ditch.

RESIDENTS OF DAVIS ROAD AND NORTHWOOD DRIVE recently developed quite a peeve at the sheriff's office. Couple of characters parked a rather dilapidated jalopy off Davis Road near the highway where it remained an eyesore for several weeks. Bad enough — but when the guys started spending their nights in the car, residents began to visualize robberies, murder in the night, fires raging through the hills — so they grabbed their telephones, got the sheriff's office and reported the incident.

Results?

Were told there was nothing the sheriff's office could do. Unless, of course, the two birds in the car did something wrong.

THERE MUST BE A REASON somewhere for the fact that, despite their apparent advantages over many other children of other areas, Orinda's kids are getting themselves in the same kind of jams that less privileged youngsters do. Merchants around this community are having a dickens of a time with petty thievery. Caught twelve children in one store the other day filling their pockets with unpurchased merchandise. And one little six year old girl lifted an automatic and a box of shells from another store.

The Rounder doesn't feel the kids are to blame nearly so much as the parents. A bit more responsibility for the children, and most definitely something for them to do during the day might help.

There's a reason and an answer for what some of the children are doing. And it would appear to the Rounder that parents should make an effort to find it. Perhaps your young one isn't involved — but if his friends are, he may be sooner or later.
